It is a condition of this instrument that in the event of any default in any of the terms and conditions of any other deed of trust, the lien of which may be or become prior and paramount to the lien of this instrument, then in every such event the owner of any part of the indebtedness secured by this instrument may, at its option, declare the indebtedness secured by this instrument due for all purposes, and foreclosure may be had hereunder as in the case of any other default hereunder. The owner of any part of the indebtedness secured hereby may, at its option, advance and pay any such sum or sums as shall be necessary in order that the terms and conditions of any deed of trust, the lien of which is then prior and paramount to the lien of this instrument, may be complied with, and such amounts so paid shall be repaid on demand with interest from date of such payment at the highest rate legally chargeable on the date of such payment, shall be treated as part of the expenses of administering this trust and shall be secured by the lien of this deed of trust; and the advancement of such sum or sums shall in no way limit or bar the aforesaid option to accelerate said indebtedness.

If without the prior written consent of the party of the third part, the party of the first part or any of the party of the first part's successors in title should convey the subject property, or any interest therein, to any other party, or should a creditor, receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy obtain any interest in the property, or should any party obtain an interest by attachment or sale in accordance with the orders of any court of competent jurisdiction by any means other than inheritance or devise, the entire principal balance of the indebtednesses and obligations secured hereby, together with interest accrued thereon, shall, at the absolute option of the Beneficiary, be and become immediately due and payable for all purposes.
